With the T-Bones organization in an unprecedented stretch of success on the field with three straight finishes above .500 in reach the team has seen the organizations all-time record climb above .500 as well. On August 14th with the walk off win over Cleburne the franchise hit the .500 mark and currently is 448-440 all time. No T-Bones club has ever had two straight finishes above .500 so this shot at three in impressive overall under the direction of Manager Joe Calfapietra.

Thanks mate

Slowly but surely the media relations summer team has worked their way back to campus. The last remaining team member Luke Schrock will join the rest on his school endeavors next week. Friday was his final night with the T-Bones. He along with the rest of the bunch were great this season. He in particular showed the drive and desire to learn and improve and represented the T-Bones in the type of way that makes the organization proud and better. He was the first on Dan Vaughan's staff to come in from out of the area and he was a smashing success with the club this season. We want to wish him and the rest of the gang a great 19-20 school year and the best as they pursue their career dreams.

T-Bones Finish Sweep with 6-4 Win

KANSAS CITY, Kan. – The Kansas City T-Bones (42-45, 20-19) completed a three-game sweep of the Schaumburg Flyers (43-43, 12-26) with a 6-4 win Thursday evening before a crowd of 5,748 at CommunityAmerica Ballpark. With the victory the T-Bones moved into a first-place tie with idle Joliet in the East Division pennant race with just nine regular-season games remaining.

Kansas City once again used the big inning and quality pitching to send the Flyers to their club-record 12th consecutive loss. After scoring seven of their nine runs Wednesday in just two innings, the T-Bones struck big again with a key three-run fourth to erase a 3-1 deficit Thursday. Zach Norman and Greg Jacobs each turned in run-scoring singles in the frame to even the score before a Rick DeHart wild pitch brought Norman home with the go-ahead run.

Kansas City's bullpen also played a critical role in the win, as Lavon Lewis worked his way out of a bases-loaded jam in the eighth inning to preserve a 4-3 lead. Moments later, Doug Dreher's sacrifice fly scored Chad Sosebee, and Jacobs delivered his second RBI-single of the contest to give the T-Bones some much-needed breathing room in the bottom half of the eighth.

James Morrison surrendered a ninth-inning homer to Chris Weekly before getting Josue Lopez to ground into a fielder's choice to wrap up his sixth save of the season.

While the T-Bones showed an unmistakable propensity for scoring late in the three-game series, they also plated the first run of the game Thursday for the third straight night. With two out in the third, Pat Magness gave the T-Bones the lead when he deposited a DeHart offering over the left-field wall for a 1-0 advantage.

Eric Cole reached base on a Robbie Knapp fielding error to lead-off the fourth, and Josue Lopez followed with a single to set up the Flyers first true scoring threat of the game. Justin Hendrickson then belted a three-run homer off T-Bones' starter Larry Robles (pictured) to give Schaumburg their only lead of the night.

The T-Bones received another standout performance from their starting pitcher, as Robles (5-5) fanned six hitters and allowed just three runs (two earned) on seven hits in 6 2/3 innings to earn the win.

DeHart (5-5) suffered the loss after giving up four runs on eight hits over his six innings of work.
