Last Game

The T-Bones and AirHogs were in a tight one for the first five innings with neither team getting anything going at the plate. Then KC scored five in the sixth including a bases clearing single to score two and a bases loaded walk by Ramsey Romano to plate another. Dylan Tice also helped by driving in two more. Tommy Collier struck out eight in six innings giving up one earned run. Robert Calvano and Henry Owens would hold the AirHogs scoreless over the final three frames in the 6-1 win.

Today

The T-Bones play the second game of a three-game series at Texas against the AirHogs. This is the final regular season road trip for KC.

Pitching Matchup

RHP Jon Perrin will make the start for the T-Bones. Jon Perrin hails from the Kansas City metro area having lettered two years at Olathe East High School before playing college ball in the Big 12 at Oklahoma State University. He was drafted twice while with the Cowboys signing as the 27th round pick by the Milwaukee Brewers in 2015. Perrin spent parts of four season with the Brewers organization before being traded to the Kansas City Royals in 2018. He spent one season with KC pitching at AA Northwest Arkansas. Perrin reached AAA Colorado Springs prior to the trade in 2018. RHP Cui Enting is in his second season with Texas. The lefty has international experience with the Chinese National Team and was part of the squad that participated in the 2018 Asia games. In 27 games with the AirHogs over the last two seasons Enting is 1-1 with a 5.12 ERA in 45.2 innings.

Up next

Following the series in Texas KC will return home to close out the year with four games against Sioux City.

All-Time Vs. AirHogs

Overall KC is 47-29 against Texas/G.P. for a .609 winning percentage. Vs. Texas. This is the fourth meeting between the two clubs this season. The T-Bones won the first three games of the season in Texas and then took two of three in July at JustBats Field at T-Bones Stadium. Currently KC is 12-1 on the season against Texas.

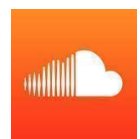

Series History

The T-Bones have no-hit the AirHogs twice for their only two no hitters in franchise history. In 2017 the T-Bones recorded their first no hitter against Texas on July 27, 2017 with Matt Sergey tossing a seven-inning no-hitter. Sergey allowed just two walks punched out 10 in the seven-inning game. The AirHogs were able to grab the lead on a steal of home by Casio Grider in the top of the seventh but KC came back to walk it off with a Cedric Hunter two RBI double off the mini monster in left to seal the win. It was the T-Bones first no hitter as members of the American Association and the second of his career or Sergey. Then on July 5th, 2018 at Texas, KC would toss a combined no-hitter in game two of a doubleheader. It was the second straight season the T-Bones have not hit the Airhogs. Up until Eddie Medina of St. Paul tossed his no hitter this season two of the previous three no hitters for the league had been walk off no hitters both involving KC. The T-Bones were victims of the feat on June 2nd, 2016 at Gary with Karl Triana doing the feat for the RailCats. To put that into perspective it has only happened six time in Major League Baseball the last in 2013.

In your hands

The wins last night by KC and Sioux City trimmed a half game lead off the Cleburne advantage. The T-Bones not only need to take care of their own business but at this point in the race with six games to go they will need some help for a chance for the 2018 Champions getting the chance to defend their crown. They will play Texas two more times all on the road and will play Sioux City four more times all at home. Currently the T-Bones own the tie breaker head to head with Cleburne but are 3-6 against Sioux City. Obviously winning five games in a row would be the simple math but also depending on what happens could use some help. T-Bones fans might want to dust off any Sioux Falls gear or find some Lincoln love in their heart this week as both teams could help turn the race upside down. Also looking ahead to the weekend, the longer the North Division stays close the series at Fargo for Cleburne would also be one to watch and perhaps cheer on the RedHawks. The T-Bones need only to be even in the standings with Cleburne to move forward to post season. The schedule breakdown:

T-Bones vs. SC 4 (4H) vs. TEX 2 (2A) 6 Games (4H) (2A)	Sioux City vs. KC 4 (4A) vs. SF 2 (3A) 7 Games (6A) Magic # vs. KC 6	Cleburne vs. FM 3 (3A) vs. Lin 3 (3A) 6 Games (6A) Magic # vs. KC 5 SC 6

1000 K

With T.J. House strike out of Drew Stankiewicz Friday night in the first inning the veteran notched his 1000 strike out of his career. He came in with 999 in 11 seasons including this season at Milwaukee where the lefty struck out 78 this season.

Tommy moves up

Tommy Collier with the win last night now has 24 wins as a T-Bone. He is 10-5 this year after going 12-3 last year for a total of 21 wins. He also tossed two wins in the post season going 2-1. He is 24-9 and now sits 4th in franchise history but third since the team moved to KCK 17 seasons ago.

Lots of wins

With the T-Bones organization in an unprecedented stretch of success on the field with three straight finishes above .500 in reach the team has seen the organizations all-time record climb above .500 as well. On August 14th with the walk off win over Cleburne the franchise hit the .500 mark and currently is 451-442 all time. No T-Bones club has ever had two straight finishes above .500 so this shot at three in impressive overall under the direction of Manager Joe Calfapietra. The T-Bones did reach the post season three straight seasons from 2008-2010 but only in 2010 did the team finish above .500. Last year the T-Bones set a franchise record for wins with 62.

All time win marks:

- 2018 - 62-37
- 2010 - 58-42
- 2017 - 57-43
- 2019 - 53-41

T-Bones Clinch Third Straight Playoff Berth in Blowout

08/28/2010

Gabriel Martinez blasted two home runs for the second straight night as the Kansas City T-Bones (53-38) clinched their third consecutive playoff berth with a 14-4 victory over the Rockford RiverHawks (44-48) Saturday night. It is the fifth straight win for Kansas City.

Kansas City scored twice in the first inning against Kyle Ruwe (6-8) on two hits and one RiverHawks error. Victor Buttler then pulled Rockford within one with a leadoff home run against Ryan Knippschild (10-7) in the bottom of the frame. Gabriel Martinez pushed the score to 3-1 in the top of the third with a solo shot, his first of the game. An RBI single from Jason James cut the T-Bones advantage back to one in the bottom of the inning, 3-2.

That's as close as Rockford would get in the contest as a three-run fifth gave the T-Bones a 6-3 lead and chased Ruwe from the contest. A two-run home run by Martinez, his second of the contest, plated the first two before Ray Sadler immediately followed with a solo shot of his own. Ruwe left after a two-out walk later in the inning, taking the loss after allowing six runs, five earned, on eight hits over four and two-thirds innings.

Martinez finished the game three-for-six with three RBI. He is now nine-for-21 (.429) with two doubles, five home runs and 11 RBI in his first five games with Kansas City. Knippschild surrendered his final run in the bottom of the fifth on an RBI single by Rich Austin before retiring his final five batters, three with strikeouts. The left-hander became the third T-Bones pitcher to reach double-digit wins after allowing three runs on six hits over six innings. It is the first time in franchise history the team has had three pitchers reach double figures in wins.

Todd Moser threw a scoreless seventh for Kansas City. Grant Ledbetter surrendered a solo home run to Jake Eigsti in the eighth and Casey Hodges added a perfect ninth to close out the game. Kansas City extended their lead to 10-3 in the seventh with four runs on five hits. Jim Fasano added three runs with a home run in the eighth and Jacob Blackwood closed out the scoring at 14-4 with an RBI double in the ninth. Five T-Bones drove in multiple runs and six Kansas City players collected multiple hits in the contest.

The T-Bones have now made the playoffs in three straight seasons for the first time in franchise history. It is their sixth playoff appearance overall, and fourth since moving to Kansas City in 2003.
