Last Game

The T-Bones stretch drive magic continued as Stewart Ijames drove in the winning run in the home half of the 10th scoring Dylan Tice to walk off winners 3-2. The T-Bones staff matched a season high 17 strikeouts for the third time this season including the first eight in a row of the ball game. Jose Mesa Jr tossed three scoreless innings and Hunter Smith added two more from the pen to hold off the Explorers.

Tonight

The T-Bones continue their final home stand and series of the season with the Sioux City Explorers. Both teams remain alive for post season play going into the third game of the four-game series.

Pitching Matchup

RHP Tommy Collier takes the hill for KC today. The Houston native returns to KCK after a stellar season in 2018. Collier was terrific all season long and came up big for the T-Bones in the American Association playoffs. Collier tossed seven innings in the first-round division series clincher in a 4-2 win over Sioux City at Lewis and Clark Park in Iowa. He scattered four hits and allowed just one earned run to help push the T-Bones on to the championship series. He then hurled eight innings, giving up three earned runs in a 7-3 T-Bones win to take a 2-1 series lead over the Saints in the Championship series. He would go 2-0 in the post season and give up four earned runs in 15 innings with 11 strike outs.

RHP Taylor Jordan takes the hill for Sioux City. He was then drafted by the Washington Nationals in the ninth round of the 2009 Major League Baseball draft out of Brevard Community College. He made his professional debut for the Gulf Coast League Nationals in 2009. Jordan's contract was selected from AA Harrisburg on June 29, 2013 and he made his major league debut the same day against the New York Mets. At the time of his promotion, Jordan had made eight starts for Harrisburg and compiled a 7-0 record with a 0.83 ERA. In 9 starts for the Nationals, Jordan recorded 1 win and 3 losses with an ERA of 3.66. Jordan opened the season as the Nationals fifth starter in 2014. He was the pitcher who allowed Angels' slugger Albert Pujols's 500th career home run on April 22. He went on to start in 5 games but was inconsistent, going 0-3 with an ERA of 5.61. In 2016, Jordan began the season with the Syracuse Chiefs and made 3 starts, going 0-0 with a 1.72 ERA.

Up next

Following the series with Sioux City the season wraps up the T-Bones are headed to post season play for the second straight season. The location and seeding are yet to be determined.

Playoff bound

Another night and day bring another wild ride on the roller coaster race for the American Association South Division playoff race. With the loss today by Cleburne to Fargo 4-3 Kansas City has clinched a playoff spot. We still do not know if it is the division or the wild card. The T-Bones can finish with no less than 57 wins. Cleburne with the loss today can finish with no more than 57 wins. The T-Bones own the tie breaker with Cleburne. Sioux City just needs one more win to get in, but the division is still up for grabs. The only way Cleburne can make the post season is for KC to win twice and Cleburne win tomorrow. Sioux City clinches a spot with one win out of their next two. If Kansas City wins one more of the two games the T-Bones will be division champions. If Sioux City wins the next two they will be division champs and KC will be the wild card.

Big night numbers

KC set a season high in runs scored (16) hits (24) and margin of victory (15) in the win Wednesday night over Texas. The club scored six runs in an inning for the fifth time this season also a season high in runs scored in an inning. Eight different hitters had at least two hits while Daniel Nava became the second T-Bone to drive in four in a game and Stewart Ijames became the first T-Bone to have a five-hit game since Cedric Hunter had five on August 1, 2017 in a win over Cleburne at the Depot. The T-Bones broke their run mark of 14 set against Cleburne back on August 12th. It was also the third time KC has held an opponent to three hits. That is a season low in hits allowed by the staff. Jon Perrin tossed his 5th straight quality start. Shawn O'Malley scored four runs the second player to achieve that.

Lots of wins

With the T-Bones organization in an unprecedented stretch of success on the field with three straight finishes above .500 in reach the team has seen the organizations all-time record climb above .500 as well. On August 14th with the walk off win over Cleburne the franchise hit the .500 mark and currently is 455-442 all time. No T-Bones club has ever had two straight finishes above .500 so this shot at three in impressive overall under the direction of Manager Joe Calfapietra. The T-Bones did reach the post season three straight seasons from 2008-2010 but only in 2010 did the team finish above .500. Last year the T-Bones set a franchise record for wins with 62.

All time win marks:

2018 - 62-37

2010 - 58-42

2017 - 57-43

2019 - 57-41

A career first

Wednesday night Austin Biggar had his first professional hit, a single in the 6th and his first pro RBI coming an inning later when he was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded.

Hit control

The staff has allowed the fewest hits in the league at 780. The lowest the team has allowed since moving to KCK was 861 in 2019. That total was the second lowest in the AA last season.

What a month!

Kansas City is on a roll in August. The team led the American Association in wins at 23 and went 23-8 in the month. The team is hitting .298 with 21 home runs and have an ERA of 3.51. It is the team's best month ever in the American Association. There have been 22 occasions a American Association team has won at least 20 games in a month since 2010. There have been only six times that a team has won at least 22 games. The T-Bones became the fifth team to win at least 23 in a month. The all-time month total board:

August 2015	Sioux City	24-5
August 2019	Kansas City	23-8
August 2017	Winnipeg	23-7
August 2014	Wichita	23-5
June 2013	Amarillo	23-5
July 2012	Fargo	23-5

Thank you in Italian

Monday night was the last game for the regular season for Chris Colabello. He joined the Italian National Team in a four-game series with Team Spain next week in Spain. The tune up for Olympic qualification is also to help celebrate the 75th anniversary of baseball in Spain. The T-Bones say "Grazie" to Colabello.

Vs. Sioux City

The T-Bones are 5-6 against the X's this season having dropped both series. The teams will meet have met seven times over 10 days when this series is over. Overall KC is 42-47 against Sioux City in the American Association. Last season the T-Bones were 7-8 against Sioux City going 4-3 at home and 3-5 on the road. The T-Bones and X's played a thrilling nip and tuck American Association Division series with KC winning the best of five game series on the road at Sioux City.

No hit wonders

This series features the two stingiest pitching staffs in the league when it comes to allowing hits. Kansas City has allowed the fewest hits at 780 while Sioux City is second in that department allowing just 794. In addition, the two clubs are second and third in strike outs in the league. Chicago leads the league with 874 then KC checks in with 863 while Sioux City has 834.

MLB Alums

While the philosophy if the organization is to get players back to affiliated ball to one day get a chance at the Big Leagues, the T-Bones feature five former Big Leaguers.

IF Shawn O'Malley – Los Angeles (AL), Seattle

OF Daniel Nava –Boston, Tampa Bay, Los Angeles (AL), Philadelphia, Kansas City

LHP Henry Owens – Boston Red Sox

IF/DH Chris Collabello – Toronto, Minnesota

LHP T.J. House – Cleveland, Toronto

Meet the new T-Bones

#1 Omar Carrizales joins the T-Bones from New York Yankees system where the Maracay, Venezuela native spent part of the last two seasons in their system. Prior to that, he spent 2013 to 2018 with the Colorado Rockies organization. The Rockies signed Carrizales as an International Free Agent in 2013, and he would come stateside in 2014, playing 45 games at rookie level Grand Junction. Carrizales would make the steady climb up the ladder, reaching AA in 2018. In seven minor league seasons, the left-handed batter is a career .266 hitter with 25 home runs and 233 RBI across 719 games. On the base paths Carrizales has stolen 66 bases in his career.

This season at high A Tampa in the Florida State League, Carrizales hit .254 in 46 games with 14 RBI. He also has three seasons of winter ball experience in his native Venezuela, playing for La Guaira. In 114 games he has 25 RBI with a .256 clip with 19 stolen bases. In his debut with KC Carrizales had an RBI double in last night's game one win for the T-Bones over the Lincoln Saltdogs.

#6 Stewart Ijames is no stranger to the American Association, having spent the last two seasons with the Texas Airhogs. With Texas, Ijames was hitting .278 this season with 10 home runs and 50 RBI in 82 games. Last season the left-handed batting outfielder hit .267 in 99 games for the Airhogs with 10 home runs and 46 RBI. Ijames was drafted by the New York Yankees in the 29th round of the 2010 MLB Draft from University of Louisville (Louisville, KY) but did not sign, instead playing all four years at Louisville. Following college, he would sign with the Washington Wild Things in the Frontier League in 2013. In 90 games he would hit .297 with 16 home runs and 45 RBI in his first pro season. He would spend 50 games with Washington in 2014 before signing as a free agent in with the Arizona Diamondbacks.

He would spend 37 games at three stops for Arizona, mainly at rookie level Missoula in the Pioneer League. He would combine hitting .309 with 12 homers and 36 RBI. In his second season with Arizona, Ijames made the jump to the California League at high A, playing in 70 games with 18 home runs and 18 doubles, driving in 44 and carrying a .273 average. Those numbers would place him third in home runs on the club and fourth in RBI. He would see 33 games at AA Mobile, hitting .274 with three home runs and 12 RBI.

In 2016 Ijames would spend the entire season at AA Mobile, hitting .242 for the Bay Bears with 10 home runs and 33 RBI. His 10 long balls were good for third on the club. In 2017, after starting the year on the disabled list, he would spend 52 games at AA Jackson on the Southern League hitting .220 with six home runs and 20 RBI and play another five games at AAA Reno in the Pacific Coast League. He would go 2-for-7 with two RBI for the Aces before his release on August 7, 2017. He would join the AirHogs for the 2018 season. Ijames was also drafted by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 46th round of the 2007 MLB Draft from Owensboro Senior HS (Owensboro, KY). The Kentucky native is a career .275 hitter in 605 games with 100 home runs and 336 RBI with a .357 on base percentage. The 31-year-old Ijames played four years with the University of Louisville with a career .292 average with the Cardinals in 239 games with 45 home runs and 212 RBI. He completed his career as a Cardinal ranked second in RBI, second in at-bats with 828, third in games played with 239, fifth in hits with 256, sixth in home runs with and seventh in doubles with 52. His senior season he would be named Second Team All-BIG EAST in 2012.

#11 Austin Biggar comes to KCK via the University of Georgia. The Lilburn, Georgia native was a three-year player for the Bulldogs. In 99 games with 73 starts Biggar hit .203 with four homers and 28 RBI in his career. His junior season he batted .255 with four doubles, two home runs and nine RBI in 30 games with 13 starts (9-DH, 4-C) as the Bulldogs went 46-17 overall (a school record 21-9 in the SEC) and earned a national No. 4 seed in the NCAA Championship. UGA advanced to the NCAA Athens Regional Final and finished with a consensus top 20 ranking including as high as No. 15 (USA Today/ESPN). Biggar was a solid pinch-hitter hitting .333 with two doubles and six RBI in 13 at bats. He hit the go-ahead home run in series-clinching win over #10 LSU at Foley Field to highlight his final season. In 2018 he hit .182 with 7 RBI as team went 39-21 and advanced to the NCAA Athens Regional Final. Biggar would play in 23 games with 16 starts at catcher. In 2017 as a freshman he appeared in 46 games with 44 starts (41-C, 3-DH) as team went 25-32 and advanced to the SEC Tournament. Biggar would hit .193 with six doubles, two home runs and 12 RBI on the season.

He was rated the top catcher in the state of Georgia out of Parkview High School, No. 9 nationally among catchers and No. 97 overall prep prospect by Perfect Game. Biggar was named a 2016 Louisville Slugger High School All-American and 2nd Team Rawlings/Perfect Game All-American while hitting .318 with 15 doubles as a senior and named first team All-State, All County and All Region plus to the Braves 400 club and Gwinnett Daily Post Super 6. He was a four-year letterman for the Parkview Panthers as a catcher and Co-MVP honors as a senior with Will Ethridge who is a pitcher now at Ole Miss. His junior year he hit .370 and led the state with 11 home runs and 48 RBI in 36 games. He was the starting catcher for the team with a 34-2 record which captured the 6A state title and named 2015 national champions and Perfect Game High School Showdown Champions and was part of three straight Region Eight 6A titles in high school. Biggar was also named a Max Preps Underclass All-American, 2015 All Region 8 Player of the Year, Gwinnett Dugout Club First Team All-County and Gwinnett Daily Post First Team selection.

Rock Solid: Rocco Pitches T-Bones to Eighth Straight Win

09/01/2010

Mike Rocco (3-2) surrendered just one run over six solid innings for the Kansas City T-Bones (56-38) Wednesday night as they defeated the Lake County Fielders (38-57), 10-2, to extend their season-high win streak to eight games.

Rocco surrendered his lone run in the third inning when Jeff Dunbar began the frame with a solo home run, his 15th of the season. The right-hander retired nine of the final 10 batters he faced, leaving after a perfect sixth inning. Rocco earned the victory after allowing the one run on four hits while striking out five in six innings of work.

Kansas City jumped out to a 5-0 lead against Garry Bakker (5-10) on five hits and one Fielders error in the second inning, plating the first run on an RBI single by Jimmy Mojica. Keanon Simon followed with an RBI single of his own, and Gabriel Martinez added a two-run single later in the frame to cap the scoring.

Bakker was chased with two outs in the third after surrendering two more runs on a wild pitch and RBI fielder's choice groundout by Mojica. The right-hander was charged with seven runs, five earned, on six hits and five walks over two and two-thirds innings.

Rico Washington added an RBI single in the fourth inning to push the score to 8-1. Todd Moser entered for Kansas City in the seventh and surrendered the Fielders final run on an RBI double by Kyle Higgins. Hunter Mense took over in the eighth and threw two scoreless frames to close out the game.

The T-Bones added their final two runs in the ninth on a solo home run by Martinez and bases-loaded walk from Luis Nieblas. Martinez finished two-for-three with three RBI to pace the offensive effort. He has now posted multi-hit games in five straight contests and has homered in four of those five games.

MEET THE T-BONES STARTING PITCHER

#34 Tommy Collier

Position: P

Date of Birth: 12/3/89

Height: 6' 2" Weight: 205 lbs

College Experience: San Jacinto College

Bats: R

Throws: R

Tommy Collier returns to KCK after a stellar season in 2018. The Houston native was terrific all season long and came up big for the T-Bones in the American Association playoffs. Collier tossed seven innings in the first-round division series clincher in a 4-2 win over Sioux City at Lewis and Clark Park in Iowa. He scattered four hits and allowed just one earned run to help push the T-Bones on to the championship series. Collier was not able to pitch the first two games at St. Paul in the league finals, but when the series shifted to Kansas City and his turn came up five days later, he again delivered. He hurled eight innings, giving up three earned runs in a 7-3 T-Bones win to take a 2-1 series lead over the Saints. He would go 2-0 in the post season and give up four earned runs in 15 innings with 11 strike outs. The right-hander would twice earn Rawlings Pitcher of the Month honors in June and July and would put up an impressive streak over the course of his last 15 starts of the regular season. In all 15 starts, from June 18th until August 30th, Kansas City went 15-0 as a team in Collier's 15 starts. He would pick up 11 wins on his record, and in the other four starts, he would throw four more quality starts of three earned runs or fewer in at least six innings. In his other start in that stretch, he went five innings with six punch outs in another T-Bones win. For the season, the former Detroit Tigers farm hand would go 12-3 with 140 strike outs in 133 innings of work. He issued just 22 walks in 20 starts with a 3.11 ERA. Combined for the regular and post season Collier would post a 14-4 record in 156 innings with 160 strike outs. Collier would throw 16 quality starts out of 23 turns in the rotation. He pitched at least six innings in 21 of his last 22 starts for the T-Bones. Collier also won eight of his 10 road starts, and the T-Bones won all 10 of his starts away from T-Bones Stadium, including game five of the American Association Division Series where he was the winner. Collier finished second in the American Association in innings pitched in 2018, and his 12 wins tied for the league lead. His 140 strike outs led the Association, and Collier owns the record for the most in a single season by a T-Bones pitcher. He would break the old record of 139 that Johnathan Krysa reached in 2004. The 12 wins was the fourth highest total for a single season in franchise history. Tommy Collier, joined the T-Bones after spending 2011-2016 with the Detroit Tigers organization and reaching AA Erie in 2016, posting a career 41-37 record and a 3.88 ERA in 650 innings with Detroit. Collier has pitched in the Venezuela Winter League for La Guaira in 2016-2017 and 2017-2018, pitching in 64 innings with a 4.22 ERA over the two combined seasons. This past winter, he played in the Mexican Winter League for Obregon, going 2-4 with a 5.32 ERA. Collier was the 22nd round pick of the Tigers in the 2011 MLB June Amateur Draft out of San Jacinto College in Houston, Texas. He went 4-1 with a 1.85 ERA in his rookie season with Connecticut in the New York/Penn League in 2011. In 2012 he made the jump to low A West Michigan, going 9-8, and he led all the starters on the club with a 2.74 ERA in 24 starting nods. In 2013, 2014 and 2015, Collier split time between High A Lakeland and AA Erie and spent 2013 in the prestigious Arizona Fall League with Mesa. Collier combined for a 4.43 ERA in 67 innings in 2013 in, and in 2014, he tossed 133 innings with a 5.75 ERA for Detroit. The right-hander went 7-8 in 2015 with a 3.70 ERA in 155.2 innings combined at both stops. At AA Erie in 2016, the Houston, Texas native won a career high nine games in 25 starts with 130.2 innings with a 4.20 ERA. Collier led the SeaWolves in wins and innings pitched that season, adding 87 strike outs. In 2008, Collier was drafted by the Milwaukee Brewers out of high school in the 29th round of the MLB Draft from Cypress-Fairbanks High School in Cypress, Texas. He was then drafted in the 49th round by Toronto in 2009 while at San Jacinto College, but he did not sign.
