A MONTH OF UPS AND DOWNS: Dan Grybash (6-2, 3.74) starts the third game of the series for the Schaumburg Flyers. Today is the fifth time Grybash will face the T-Bones this season. The right-hander boasts a 4.85 ERA when facing the T-Bones and picked up one of his two losses on May 30, when Kenny Durost and Kansas City downed the Flyers 7-6 in Schaumburg. Grybash spent last season with Fort Worth of the American Association and was 6-7 with a 3.98 ERA on the season. He struggled in July, recording a 9.31 ERA. One year later, Grybash's July ERA is 2.77.

BOUGHNER'S BEST: T-Bones pitcher Anthony Boughner (3-3, 6.68) makes his third start against the Flyers this evening. The left-hander has an astonishing 0.63 ERA when facing Schaumburg, allowing only one earned run on 13 hits in 14.3 innings. Boughner spent the 2005 season with the Flyers, going 0-7 at home with a 6.23 ERA while posting a 4-2 record with a 2.88 ERA on the road.

BRING YOUR BROOM: Last night's 10-3 victory and Friday night's 14-8 win was the first time the T-Bones recorded back-to-back wins at home since June 6 when they faced the league-leading Gary RailCats. The T-Bones went on to get their first and only sweep of the season on July 7. The go for their second sweep tonight. The last time the T-Bones won two in a row on the road was in Edmonton on June 27th and 28th.

A PERFECT BULLPEN: After Kenny Durost started last night's game, three T-Bone relievers pitched a combined five perfect innings with Chris Krawczyk picking up the win on his 24th birthday. Lavon Lewis threw two perfect innings with the versatile Rob Watson finishing the game with a perfect ninth.

A GROWING COMMUNITY: With a week of record-breaking nights this week at CommunityAmerica Ballpark, setting season-best attendance figures Monday through Friday, the T-Bones now average 6,001 fans a game. This is the first time since moving to Kansas City that the franchise has averaged over 6,000 fans a game for a season.

WHERE'S WATSON?: Rob Watson continues to lead the league with his at home on-base streak, having now reached safely in all 30 home games. In last night's win, Watson went three-for-five with a double, which was the T-Bones only extra-base hit of the game. The second baseman has also taken his turn on the mound, pitching in three games for the T-Bones, surrendering two hits in three shutout innings.

HITS ALL AROUND: During last night's win, every starter except first baseman Mario Delgado collected a hit. It marked the 20th time the T-Bones have had at least eight starters get a hit and the third time they have done it against Schaumburg this season. In those 20 games, which are 34% of their total games played this year, the T-Bones have won 12. In seven of those 20 games, every T-Bones starter has recorded a hit and Kansas City has won four of those contests. The T-Bones recorded four straight games from June 24-28 where every starter got a hit.
