Last Night

The T-Bones came from behind to win the first game of the doubleheader 5-3 in eight innings. In game two the Goldeyes had a 3-1 lead going into the last inning before the league mandated curfew took effect. The teams will finish game two today before playing game three.

Today

The T-Bones wrap up their only trip to Canada for the regular season and their first road trip of the season in the final game of a three-game series against the Winnipeg Goldeyes.

Pitching Matchups

RHP Dustin Hurlbutt comes to Kansas City after spending parts of four seasons with the Oakland Athletics organization. Hurlbutt was the 15th round pick by Oakland in the 2015 June draft out of Tabor College in Hillsboro, Kansas. Last season Hurlbutt posted a 3-4 record with a 3.86 ERA in nine starts with Stockton in the California League. He would add 44.1 innings, giving up 37 hits and 19 earned runs with 39 strike outs. He reached as high as AAA in his career. The Goldeyes will send out left-hander Kevin McGovern who is 1-0 with a 3.00 ERA in two starts this season. McGovern is second all-time on the American Association's career strikeouts list. McGovern is 41-33 in his career with a 4.02 ERA in 130 games in eighth pro seasons.

Double vision

The T-Bones have been rained out four times since last Friday the 17th opening night of the season. They have played three double headers after playing only four all of last season. The club was only washed away three times all season at home last year. The first did not come until August 15th against Fargo. The second came four days later on August 19th against Cleburne in a game that was not made up with the T-Bones only playing 99 games. The weather forced another rainout in Texas on June 7th the other double headers was a scheduled pair in Lincoln. This season the club was washed away on Saturday the 18th against Fargo and made up the next day the 19th. The back to back rain outs at home against Lincoln on the 20th and 21st and Friday night in Winnipeg. The back to back on Monday and Tuesday was the fourth time that the T-Bones have had back to back rainouts in a season. The last time was in 2015 when the T-Bones were washed away on back to back nights in Joplin on June 17th and 18th that season. In 2003 the last series was hampered by rain. On August 30th and 31st the T-Bones and the Sioux Falls Canaries had back to backs over Labor Day weekend eventually finishing the series with a single game on the 1st. In 2004 there was a suspended game followed by a rainout and the most famous of all was the 2008 Northern League Finals where Gary had a sink hole in left field with three days of rain to hold off the KC Championship celebration.

Let the Countdown begin

With the win last night in game one over Winnipeg Joe Calfapietra now is 972 wins as a manager. He is set to be the next indy manager to 1000 win. St. Paul Manager George Tsamis reached 1,000 career wins back on June 12, 2018. He joined former Fargo boss Doug Simunic, current Gary Manager Greg Tagert and second year Chicago Dogs Manager Butch Hobson in the 1,000-win club in indy ball. Joe Calfapietra was named 2018 American Association Manager of the year September 4th after leading the T-Bones to a 62-37 record and a playoff berth as the second-place finishers in the south division. He led the team to their first title as members of the American Association and the third in franchise history. The Eastern College alum also helped a league-leading eight players into organizational ball since the end of the 2017 season. Calfapietra is in his second season as the T-Bones' manager and became the first manager in franchise history to have back to back winning seasons in 2018. The 46-year-old has an overall record of 967-820 in 19 seasons as a manager, all at the independent level. Joe Calfapietra was named the T-Bones sixth manager in the club's history on November 30, 2016. Calfapietra (pronounced Cal-fa-pee-eh-tra), 47, brings an overall record of 905-783 into his second season in Kansas City and his 18th season as a manager, all at the independent level. Calfapietra guided Kansas City to the second-best overall franchise record in the club's history (57-43) with the team finishing in a three-way tie for a post season spot for the league the wild card. The T-Bones did not advance due to a tie breaker but Calfapietra turned over the 2017 roster with only one hold over from the 2016 helping the club reached a franchise high of 84 days above .500 out of a 109-day season. Despite a 1-5 start to begin the season, his 2017 club reached .500 at 7-7 at Sioux Falls on June 2nd and stayed at or above for 93 days and 83 in a row. With the win on August 26th at Gary, Calfapietra won his 900th career game. He hit the 50-win mark August 23rd at home against Cleburne for the seventh straight season. Calfapietra spent 14 seasons as the manager of the New Jersey Jackals of the Can-Am League before taking over the dugout reigns of the T-Bones in 2017. While in New Jersey, only four of those 14 teams did not reach the postseason. The Jackals won the league championship in 2004, at the end of Calfapietra's second season in New Jersey, and then his teams reached the league championship series in five consecutive seasons, 2011-15. In 2016, the Jackals went 62-38, before losing in the first round of the Can-Am playoffs. The T-Bones and Calfapietra's Jackals faced each other seven times in interleague play since 2012, with New Jersey winning four of those games. Calfapietra started his coaching career in 1994 in this organization, when the T-Bones were in Duluth, Minn., and were known as the Dukes. In 2002, Calfapietra was the first-ever manager of the Gary SouthShore RailCats, where he was the league manager of the year, before starting with New Jersey the following season. Calfapietra lives in Collegeville, Pa., with his wife and their two daughters, ages 18 and 12. Calfapietra is the T-Bones' sixth manager since the team moved from Duluth prior to the 2003 season and when he took over in 2017 he replaced John Massarelli, who went 139-160 in three seasons with Kansas City, including 42-58 in 2016.

Ninth Inning Rally Gives Kansas City Third Straight "W"

05/26/2018

ROSEMONT, IL. –Impact Field in suburban Chicago by all accounts is a publicly funded park. After the Friday night historic first home opener for the Chicago Dogs in front of 6,317 fans, the T-Bones Zach Walters may be the sole owner of the new 60-million-dollar park. Walters launched two home runs and drove in four runs as Kansas City came from behind to win 8-4 for the teams third straight win.

The T-Bones took the lead in the first on a Dylan Tice solo home run off Scott Barns. In the top of the fifth Zach Walters launched his first homer of the game off Tyson Perez to make it 2-0. Luis Paula held the Hot Dogs scoreless through four innings but ran into trouble in the bottom of the fifth.

Paula retired the first man he faced but then hit back to back batters in Wilfredo Rodrigues and Trey Vavra. He then walked Matt Dean to load the bases. For the third time this week a T-Bones pitcher hit a batter with the bases loaded scoring a run. Paula hit Kyle Gaedele to bring home a run and it was 2-1 Kansas City. Edwin Arroyo then singled to tie the game at two and then Michael Macca drove in two with another single to give Chicago the lead. 4-2.

Kansas City could not crack the Chicago bull pen until the ninth. Kaohi Downing came in to work the ninth for Chicago and hit Dexter Kjerstad to start the inning. Jordan Edgerton would single with one out to put runners at the corners. Angel Rosa then lined a homer run to left center to give the T-Bones the 5-4 lead.

Johnny Davis reached on a perfectly placed bunt single and Dylan Tice would be hit by a pitch to put runners at first and second. Walters then provided the knockout punch with his second shot of the night to make it 8-4 Kansas City. The T-Bones Carlos Diaz worked a scoreless home half of the ninth as Kansas City won it 8-4.

Kansas City (4-3) has won three straight while, Chicago fell to (1-6). Game two of the series is Saturday night from Chicago

Dustin Hurlbutt comes to Kansas City after spending parts of four seasons with the Oakland Athletics organization. Hurlbutt was the 15th round pick by Oakland in the 2015 June draft out of Tabor College in Hillsboro, Kansas. He spent part of this winter in the Venezuelan Winter League, making two starts and covering a total of 5.2 innings before agreeing to a contract with Kansas City on February 22. Last season Hurlbutt posted a 3-4 record with a 3.86 ERA in nine starts with Stockton in the California League. He would add 44.1 innings, giving up 37 hits and 19 earned runs with 39 strike outs. In 2017 Hurlbutt saw action at three different levels of the A's system. At high A Stockton, Hurlbutt tossed 69.2 innings with 74 strike outs going 2-2 for the Ports with a 3.23 ERA. In a one game stay at AAA Nashville, the right-hander made one start and gave up five earned runs in three innings. He would finish the season making nine starts at AA Midland in the Texas League, going 3-2 with a 3.74 ERA and 32 strikeouts.

Hurlbutt spent the entire 2016 season at low A Beloit in the Midwest League. In 19 games (14 starts) he pitched a career-high 98 innings with 78 strikeouts and a 2.57 ERA. In his first professional season, he would work in 14.1 innings with 20 strike outs and a 3.14 ERA with the Athletic rookie club in the Arizona League. In his final season at Tabor, he went 10-3 with a 3.16 ERA in 88 innings with 108 strikeouts, and while at Tabor, he was named NAIA All-American and was a member of the Blue Jays club that reached the NAIA World Series. Hurlbutt also spent one season at Northeastern State University and graduated from Field Kindley High School in his hometown of Coffeyville, Kansas
