Today

The T-Bones and Milwaukee Milkmen wrap up their three-game series at T-Bones Stadium.

Pitching Matchups

RHP Tommy Collier takes the hill for KC tonight. The Houston native returns to KCK after a stellar season in 2018. Collier was terrific all season long and came up big for the T-Bones in the American Association playoffs. Collier tossed seven innings in the first-round division series clincher in a 4-2 win over Sioux City at Lewis and Clark Park in Iowa. He scattered four hits and allowed just one earned run to help push the T-Bones on to the championship series. He then hurled eight innings, giving up three earned runs in a 7-3 T-Bones win to take a 2-1 series lead over the Saints in the Championship series. He would go 2-0 in the post season and give up four earned runs in 15 innings with 11 strike outs. For the season he 12-3 with a 3.11 and his 140 strike outs led the Association. RHP Angel Ventura will take the mound for the Milkmen. Ventura spent eight seasons with the Milwaukee Brewers organization reaching AAA in 2017 and 2018. A native of the Dominican Republic he has a career record of 40-36 in parts of nine season with a 4.07 ERA.

About the Milkmen

The Milwaukee Milkmen are the newest members of the American Association. They are set to open their brand-new ballpark Routine Field a 15-million-dollar park on Monday June 24th against the Gary SouthShore RailCats. Jose Rosario leads the club at the plate with .268 and catcher/first baseman Manuel Boscan leads the club with six RBIs. Former T-Bone Myles Smith is off to a good start with 14 strike outs in 6.1 innings of relief with three saves. Gary McClure comes over from the Northwoods League club the Kokomo Jackrabbits to lead the Milkmen in their maiden season. McClure spent 28 years as the head coach at Austin Peay University from 1988 to 2015 and remains the winningest coach in school history as well as the Ohio Valley Conference.

Make it seven

Christian Correa has an interesting hitting streak. His seven game hitting streak as a T-Bone actually started in 2017. He began the streak on May 30th, 2017 with a 2-for-4 night at Gary. His first hit that night was an inside the park home run the last time the T-Bones accomplished that feat. He again had a hit on June 1st then was signed by the Colorado Rockies. He came back to KC for spring training 2018 but was traded on the eve of opening day and did not have an official T-Bone at bat until May 19th against Fargo. He had hit in all five games he has started this year and currently has a seven-game streak that started almost two years ago to the day.

Catching fire

The T-Bones catching due of Christian Correa and Roy Morales are a combined 13-for-32 with five RBI on the season. Correa has reached base with a hit in all five of his starts. Morales notched his first T-Bone RBI last night.

Double vision

The T-Bones have been rained out five times since Friday the 17th the opening night of the season. They have played four double headers after playing only four all of last season. The club was only washed away three times all season at home last year. The first did not come until August 15th against Fargo. The second came four days later on August 19th against Cleburne in a game that was not made up with the T-Bones only playing 99 games. The weather forced another rainout in Texas on June 7th the other double headers was a scheduled pair in Lincoln. This season the club was washed away on Saturday the 18th against Fargo and made up the next day the 19th. The back to back rain outs at home against Lincoln on the 20th and 21st and Friday night in Winnipeg. The back to back on Monday and Tuesday was the fourth time that the T-Bones have had back to back rainouts in a season. The last time was in 2015 when the T-Bones were washed away on back to back nights in Joplin on June 17th and 18th that season. In 2003 the last series was hampered by rain. On August 30th and 31st the T-Bones and the Sioux Falls Canaries had back to backs over Labor Day weekend eventually finishing the series with a single game on the 1st. In 2004 there was a suspended game followed by a rainout and the most famous of all was the 2008 Northern League Finals where Gary had a sink hole in left field with three days of rain to hold off the KC Championship celebration.

T-Bones Hold Off Flyers to Snap Skid at Seven

05/30/2007

SCHAUMBURG, Ill. – The Kansas City T-Bones ended their longest losing streak since moving to Kansas City tonight with a 7-6 victory over the Schaumburg Flyers.

Schaumburg struck first when Demetrius Heath hit a solo home run off former Flyer and T-Bones starter Kenny Durost (pictured) in the first inning. The Flyers added another run in the fourth when Christian Snavelly drove home Dario Delgado with a sacrifice fly. Durost picked up his first victory of the season after allowing two runs on seven hits in six innings.

The T-Bones came back in the top of the fifth off Flyers starter Dan Grybash. After a one-out double from Aharon Eggleston, Neb Brown doubled him home for the first of three runs in the inning. After a walk to Donald Mendez, Mario Delgado singled home Brown with Mendez also scoring on the play after a throwing error by center fielder Kevin House.

Kansas City added four more runs in the sixth, three coming on a triple by Eggleston that scored Brad Correll, Austin Easley and Nelson Gord. A sacrifice fly from Rob Watson would drive home Eggleston to extend the T-Bones lead to five runs. Grybash was saddled with the loss after allowing seven runs, five earned, in five innings.

Schaumburg responded in the bottom of the seventh off T-Bones reliever Travis Schlichting with a three run frame of their own, highlighted by an RBI triple from Sandy Almonte. Almonte would come home on an RBI groundout from Josh Noviskey. A fielder's choice groundout from Kevin Bass plated Keith Maxwell for the third run of the inning.

The T-Bones and reliever Dan Jackson made it interesting in the ninth inning, allowing a run on a single by Keith Maxwell and putting the winning run for Schaumburg on at first base with two outs. However, Jackson would get Heath to ground out to third to end the threat and pick up his third save of the season.

Brett Reid and Matt Schweitzer appeared in relief for Kansas City, holding Schaumburg scoreless in the eighth.

The series will be decided tomorrow night at Alexian Field in Schaumburg. Larkin Braxton will make his third start as he goes against Drew Dickinson for the Flyers at 7:05.

Tommy Collier returns to KCK after a stellar season in 2018. The Houston native was terrific all season long and came up big for the T-Bones in the American Association playoffs. Collier tossed seven innings in the first-round division series clincher in a 4-2 win over Sioux City at Lewis and Clark Park in Iowa. He scattered four hits and allowed just one earned run to help push the T-Bones on to the championship series. Collier was not able to pitch the first two games at St. Paul in the league finals, but when the series shifted to Kansas City and his turn came up five days later, he again delivered. He hurled eight innings, giving up three earned runs in a 7-3 T-Bones win to take a 2-1 series lead over the Saints. He would go 2-0 in the post season and give up four earned runs in 15 innings with 11 strike outs.

The right-hander would twice earn Rawlings Pitcher of the Month honors in June and July and would put up an impressive streak over the course of his last 15 starts of the regular season. In all 15 starts, from June 18th until August 30th, Kansas City went 15-0 as a team in Collier's 15 starts. He would pick up 11 wins on his record, and in the other four starts, he would throw four more quality starts of three earned runs or fewer in at least six innings. In his other start in that stretch, he went five innings with six punch outs in another T-Bones win. For the season, the former Detroit Tigers farm hand would go 12-3 with 140 strike outs in 133 innings of work. He issued just 22 walks in 20 starts with a 3.11 ERA. Combined for the regular and post season Collier would post a 14-4 record in 156 innings with 160 strike outs. Collier would throw 16 quality starts out of 23 turns in the rotation. He pitched at least six innings in 21 of his last 22 starts for the T-

Bones. Collier also won eight of his 10 road starts, and the T-Bones won all 10 of his starts away from T-Bones Stadium, including game five of the American Association Division Series where he was the winner.

Collier finished second in the American Association in innings pitched in 2018, and his 12 wins tied for the league lead. His 140 strike outs led the Association, and Collier owns the record for the most in a single season by a T-Bones pitcher. He would break the old record of 139 that Johnathan Krysa reached in 2004. The 12 wins was the fourth highest total for a single season in franchise history. Tommy Collier, joined the T-Bones after spending 2011-2016 with the Detroit Tigers organization and reaching AA Erie in 2016, posting a career 41-37 record and a 3.88 ERA in 650 innings with Detroit. Collier has pitched in the Venezuela Winter League for La Guaira in 2016-2017 and 2017-2018, pitching in 64 innings with a 4.22 ERA over the two combined seasons. This past winter, he played in the Mexican Winter League for Obregon, going 2-4 with a 5.32 ERA.

Collier was the 22nd round pick of the Tigers in the 2011 MLB June Amateur Draft out of San Jacinto College in Houston, Texas. He went 4-1 with a 1.85 ERA in his rookie season with Connecticut in the New York/Penn League in 2011. In 2012 he made the jump to low A West Michigan, going 9-8, and he led all the starters on the club with a 2.74 ERA in 24 starting nods. In 2013, 2014 and 2015, Collier split time between High A Lakeland and AA Erie and spent 2013 in the prestigious Arizona Fall League with Mesa. Collier combined for a 4.43 ERA in 67 innings in 2013 in, and in 2014, he tossed 133 innings with a 5.75 ERA for Detroit. The right-hander went 7-8 in 2015 with a 3.70 ERA in 155.2 innings combined at both stops. At AA Erie in 2016, the Houston, Texas native won a career high nine games in 25 starts with 130.2 innings with a 4.20 ERA. Collier led the SeaWolves in wins and innings pitched that season, adding 87 strike outs. In 2008, Collier was drafted by the Milwaukee Brewers out of high school in the 29th round of the MLB Draft from Cypress-Fairbanks High School in Cypress, Texas. He was then drafted in the 49th round by Toronto in 2009 while at San Jacinto College, but he did not sign.
