Last Night

The T-Bones dropped their third game in a row as Gary won it 7-1. The RailCats hit a pair of home runs and broke open a 3-1 game late in the seventh and ninth scoring four off the T-Bones pen. Dustin Hurlbutt tossed a hard luck quality start in the loss for KC.

Tonight

The T-Bones host longtime rival the Gary SouthShore RailCats in the second game of a three-game series at T-Bones Stadium.

Pitching Matchups

RHP Dylan Baker will face LHP Trevor Lubking for the RailCats. Dylan Baker takes the bump for KC. Baker comes to KCK after one season with the Los Angeles Dodgers organization where he went 3-6 in 34 games all in relief with a 6.08 ERA over 37 innings and notched eight saves in 2018. Primarily a starter throughout his career, it was his first season to notch a save as a pitcher. Prior to his one season with the Dodgers system, he spent 2012 to 2017 with the Cleveland Indians organization. Baker was selected in the fifth round of the 2012 First-Year Player Draft by the Cleveland Indians and made his debut in the rookie Arizona League that summer. Lubking was drafted in the 14th round by the Tampa Bay Rays in 2014 out of Pacific Lutheran University. The Buckley, Washington native spent one season with the Rays organization and another with the Brewers. He missed parts of two seasons due to injury but came back to have a solid 2018 making four indy ball stops.

Roster Moves

It has been a busy day for the T-Bones. The team has signed seven-year Major Leaguer Daniel Nava and former T-Bone Dylan Tice. To get to the American Association roster number of 23 the team has released OF Daniel Robertson but have added him to the coaching staff as Hitting Coach. Bill Sobbe will stay at third base but also take over the pitching coach duties. Sobbe served as the pitching coach for the club from until 2014-2016.

About the RailCats

The Gary SouthShore RailCats and the T-Bones rivalry goes back to the old Northern League. KC is 37-50 in the AA vs. the RailCats since 2011. The RailCats are led by Manager Greg Tagert one of the most successful Managers in all of baseball. In 15 seasons at the helm of the Cats. Tagert has reached the post season nine times.

Old Mates

Kansas City and Gary used to share the same division in the American Association until the switch to the new North South two division format last season. The T-Bones and RailCats met for the 2008 Northern League Championship with Kansas City defeating the defending champion RailCats three games to one. It remains one of the more colorful chapters in both teams' histories with the game being delayed for three days in Gary with Rain and a sink hole in left field from the weather. The T-Bones would finish the post season with a 6-1 record that years on the way to the title.

Double vision

The second came four days later on August 19th against Cleburne in a game that was not made up with the T-Bones only playing 99 games. The weather forced another rainout in Texas on June 7th the other double headers was a scheduled pair in Lincoln. This season the club was washed away on Saturday the 18th against Fargo and made up the next day the 19th. The back to back rain outs at home against Lincoln on the 20th and 21st and Friday night in Winnipeg. The back to back on Monday and Tuesday was the fourth time that the T-Bones have had back to back rainouts in a season. The last time was in 2015 when the T-Bones were washed away on back to back nights in Joplin on June 17th and 18th that season. In 2003 the last series was hampered by rain. On August 30th and 31st the T-Bones and the Sioux Falls Canaries had back to backs over Labor Day weekend eventually finishing the series with a single game on the 1st. In 2004 there was a suspended game followed by a rainout and the most famous of all was the 2008 Northern League Finals where Gary had a sink hole in left field with three days of rain to hold off the KC Championship celebration.

T-Bones Land Victory Over Goldeyes

06/01/2009

The Kansas City T-Bones (8-7) capitalized on strong pitching and early offense to defeat the Winnipeg Goldeyes (11-4), 6-2, tonight at CommunityAmerica Ballpark.

With 3,009 in attendance, Kansas City jumped out to a 2-0 lead in the first against Ben Pfinsgraff (2-2), plating the first run on a solo shot from Damian Rolls (pictured). Following three straight singles, Craig Hurba drove in Greg Jacobs with a sacrifice fly to cap off the frame.

Cory Patton doubled off Chris Rhoads (2-0) in the second and later scored on a groundout by Cody Ehlers to pull Winnipeg within one. Following a fielder's choice and a single in the bottom of the inning, Rolls doubled in the T-Bones third run of the contest to push the T-Bones lead back to two. After a wild pitch scored Aharon Eggleston, Jacobs plated Rolls with a sacrifice fly for a 5-1 advantage.

Rolls added an RBI single in the fourth to finish the scoring for Kansas City. Pfinsgraff left after four and two-thirds innings, allowing six runs, four earned, on 12 hits in the loss.

Juan Diaz hit an RBI single in the fifth to give Winnipeg their final tally of the game. Rhoads left after six and two-thirds innings, earning the victory after surrendering two runs on nine hits while striking out six. Payton Tweddale replaced the right-hander with two on in the seventh and struck out the only batter he faced to end the threat.

Blair Johnson entered in the eighth and loaded the bases after a quick out with a single, hit batter and walk. He worked out of the jam, inducing an infield fly and groundout to maintain Kansas City's four-run lead.

Daniel Sattler threw a perfect ninth to finish the game. Rolls went three-for-four on the night with three RBI. He fell a triple shy of the cycle. Jacobs finished three-for-four with two doubles in his season debut.

Dylan Baker comes to KCK after one season with the Los Angeles Dodgers organization where he went 3-6 in 34 games all in relief with a 6.08 ERA over 37 innings and notched eight saves in 2018. Primarily a starter throughout his career, it was his first season to notch a save as a pitcher. Prior to his one season with the Dodgers system, he spent 2012 to 2017 with the Cleveland Indians organization. Baker was selected in the fifth round of the 2012 First-Year Player Draft by the Cleveland Indians and made his debut in the rookie Arizona League that summer, going 0-1 with a 4.13 ERA in 24 innings, making eight starts in his eight games. He added 30 strike outs his first season.

In 2013 at Lake County in the Midwest League, Baker went 7-6 in 27 games, making 25 starts over a 143.2 career-high innings. He would strike out 117 on the season at low A. Baker logged a team-best 143.2 innings, finishing with team-highs in victories (7) and strikeouts (117) and ranked among Midwest League leaders in starts (4th, 25), innings (4th, 143.2), strikeouts (4th, 117) and ERA (13th, 3.63). Baker also ranked fifth in ERA among all Cleveland minor leaguers that season and earned the Indians Minor League Player of the Week for June 19th – 25th that season.

The 2014 season began with promise for Baker at high A Carolina. He would work six innings of no-hit ball with four strike outs, but he would miss a majority of the season because of a broken right ankle, suffered after making his first start of the season. He would be activated from the DL on July 21 and slowly work his way back. Baker would go to the rookie level Arizona league for three games where he posted a 1.59 ERA in 5.2 innings, and then Baker headed back to high A in the Carolina League to close out the season. He would finish the year going at least five innings in his last four starts, including back-to-back quality starts where he held the opposition to four runs over 12 innings. In his final 19 innings of the season, Baker allowed just five earned runs. He would go 3-3 overall with the Mudcats with a 4.05 ERA in nine starts in 46.2 innings. Baker once again had to fight off the injury bug in 2015. He was limited to just one start, coming April 9 at Potomac where he worked five hitless innings while walking one and fanning nine. Baker was diagnosed with an elbow strain after the start and was placed on the DL, eventually undergoing right elbow reconstruction on May 20. Baker then underwent a clean-up procedure (scar tissue) on January 8 that delayed the start of his 2016 season. He would be rewarded despite the setbacks and was added to the 40-man roster on November 20 of 2015 by Cleveland.

The 2016 was a “wash” for Baker owing to the 2015 surgeries. He was limited in his return to the mound as he experienced discomfort at each step along his rehabilitation efforts and was forced to undergo an additional arthroscopic procedure on August 16 to address posterior elbow and forearm soreness. Baker returned in 2017 and started the season on the DL because of the previous two seasons of setbacks. He went a combined 1-1 with a 2.70 ERA in 17 games with two starts with AA Akron in the Eastern League and Rookie level Arizona. Baker struck out 16 while giving up just one walk. He pitched in 13 games at AA, going 0-1 with a 2.84 ERA, and he struck out 10 against one walk and pitched in another four games (two starts) for Rookie-level Arizona Indians while in rehab with a back injury from July 23 to August 14. The Indians recalled Baker on September 1 and shut him down for the rest of the season, placing him on the 60-day disabled list with a right shoulder strain and ending his season.

Baker, a native of Alaska, graduated from Douglas High School, in Juneau, Alaska, before attending Tacoma Community College. He then transferred to Western Nevada College where he became the highest draft selection for a player out of Western Nevada in 2012. He resides in Juneau, Alaska.
