Last Game

The St. Paul Saints offense for the third time this season was too much for Kansas City. Christian Correa gave KC the lead in the seventh with a two out bases loaded double to make the score 7-4. Brian Ellington gave up his first earned run of the season in the bottom of the seventh to cut the score to 7-5. Then in the home half of the ninth with two out and the bases loaded Josh Allen hit a grand slam home run to walk it off for St. Paul off Carlos Diaz. It was the first run given up by Diaz this season.

Today

The T-Bones will face St. Paul in a 1:05 pm game in the second game of the three-game series.

Pitching Matchup

RHP Dylan Baker takes the bump for KC. Baker comes to KCK after one season with the Los Angeles Dodgers organization where he went 3-6 in 34 games all in relief with a 6.08 ERA over 37 innings and notched eight saves in 2018. Primarily a starter throughout his career, it was his first season to notch a save as a pitcher. Prior to his one season with the Dodgers system, he spent 2012 to 2017 with the Cleveland Indians organization. Baker was selected in the fifth round of the 2012 First-Year Player Draft by the Cleveland Indians and made his debut in the rookie Arizona League that summer.

RHP Dustin Crenshaw is in his 8th season of pro ball and returns to St. Paul where he played with the Saints in 2015 and 2017. The right hander out of Pinole, California pitched at the University of South Alabama. He has pitched in three different indy leagues and has time in both Australia and in Mexico. He is known to be durable and able to eat innings over his career. In eight seasons he is 74-46 with a 3.57 ERA in 1,014 minor league innings.

KANSAS CITY, Kan. – The Kansas City T-Bones used 16 hits to plate 15 runs as they shutout Winnipeg 15-0 in the finale of a four-game series this afternoon in front of 5,480 fans at CommunityAmerica Ballpark. The T-Bones took three of four games from Winnipeg to begin a seven-game homestand.

Anthony Snow threw five and one-thirds scoreless innings for Kansas City tonight, allowing just four hits as he improved to 3-3. The Goldeyes saw at least one batter reach base in each inning against Snow, but couldn't muster a score.

Aaron Jackson matched Snow for two innings before surrendering three runs, one earned, on three hits in the third inning. Greg Jacobs and Neb Brown picked up RBI in the frame.

Kansas City added another run in the fourth on an RBI single by Rob Watson and four more on three hits in the sixth to take a 8-0 lead. Jim Fasano drove in three of the four sixth-inning runs with his 14th home run of the season.

Jackson left after surrendering doubles to the first two batters in the sixth. He was charged with six runs, four earned, on seven hits in five-plus innings as he fell to 3-3 on the year.

The T-Bones plated three runs in the seventh and four in the eighth to extend their total to 15. Jacobs picked up two more RBI in the seventh and one in the eighth, both on singles. He finished three-for-six with four RBI in the contest. Geoff McCallum (pictured) reached safely and scored in all five plate appearances, ending the contest two-for-two with two RBI. Wayne Foltin was charged with seven of the runs in on seven hits over one and one-thirds innings for Winnipeg.

Tag Horner threw one and two-thirds innings of scoreless relief for Snow. Bobby Carrington allowed one hit in a scoreless eighth and Payton Tweddale closed out the contest for Kansas City with a perfect ninth, striking out two of the three batters he faced.

Shortstop Max Poulin got the final two outs for the Goldeyes in the eighth, surrendering one hit while striking out one

Height: 6' 3" Weight: 205 lbs

College Experience: Western Nevada J.C.

Bats: R

Dylan Baker comes to KCK after one season with the Los Angeles Dodgers organization where he went 3-6 in 34 games all in relief with a 6.08 ERA over 37 innings and notched eight saves in 2018. Primarily a starter throughout his career, it was his first season to notch a save as a pitcher. Prior to his one season with the Dodgers system, he spent 2012 to 2017 with the Cleveland Indians organization. Baker was selected in the fifth round of the 2012 First-Year Player Draft by the Cleveland Indians and made his debut in the rookie Arizona League that summer, going 0-1 with a 4.13 ERA in 24 innings, making eight starts in his eight games. He added 30 strikeouts his first season. In 2013 at Lake County in the Midwest League, Baker went 7-6 in 27 games, making 25 starts over a 143.2 career-high innings. He would strike out 117 on the season at low A. Baker logged a team-best 143.2 innings, finishing with team-highs in victories (7) and strikeouts (117) and ranked among Midwest League leaders in starts (4th, 25), innings (4th, 143.2), strikeouts (4th, 117) and ERA (13th, 3.63). Baker also ranked fifth in ERA among all Cleveland minor leaguers that season and earned the Indians Minor League Player of the Week for June 19th – 25th that season.

The 2014 season began with promise for Baker at high A Carolina. He would work six innings of no-hit ball with four strike outs, but he would miss a majority of the season because of a broken right ankle, suffered after making his first start of the season. He would be activated from the DL on July 21 and slowly work his way back. Baker would go to the rookie level Arizona league for three games where he posted a 1.59 ERA in 5.2 innings, and then Baker headed back to high A in the Carolina League to close out the season. He would finish the year going at least five innings in his last four starts, including back-to-back quality starts where he held the opposition to four runs over 12 innings. In his final 19 innings of the season, Baker allowed just five earned runs. He would go 3-3 overall with the Mudcats with a 4.05 ERA in nine starts in 46.2 innings. Baker once again had to fight off the injury bug in 2015. He was limited to just one start, coming April 9 at Potomac where he worked five hitless innings while walking one and fanning nine. Baker was diagnosed with an elbow strain after the start and was placed on the DL, eventually undergoing right elbow reconstruction on May 20. Baker then underwent a clean-up procedure (scar tissue) on January 8 that delayed the start of his 2016 season. He would be rewarded despite the setbacks and was added to the 40-man roster on November 20 of 2015 by Cleveland.

The 2016 was a "wash" for Baker owing to the 2015 surgeries. He was limited in his return to the mound as he experienced discomfort at each step along his rehabilitation efforts and was forced to undergo additional arthroscopic procedure on August 16 to address posterior elbow and forearm soreness. Baker returned in 2017 and started the season on the DL because of the previous two seasons of setbacks. He went a combined 1-1 with a 2.70 ERA in 17 games with two starts with AA Akron in the Eastern League and Rookie level Arizona. Baker struck out 16 while giving up just one walk. He pitched in 13 games at AA, going 0-1 with a 2.84 ERA, and he struck out 10 against one walk and pitched in another four games (two starts) for Rookie-level Arizona Indians while in rehab with a back injury from July 23 to August 14. The Indians recalled Baker on September 1 and shut him down for the rest of the season, placing him on the 60-day disabled list with a right shoulder strain and ending his season. Baker, a native of Alaska, graduated from Douglas High School, in Juneau, Alaska, before attending Tacoma Community College. He then transferred to Western Nevada College where he became the highest draft selection for a player out of Western Nevada in 2012. He resides in Juneau, Alaska.
